

NASTE Season 2009 – Race #1

November 14, 2009

Hemi Heights Raceway Park, Portland, Or.

The first NASTE race of the 2010 season was held Saturday, November 14, at the Jeff Courtney's Hemi Heights Raceway Park in northeast Portland. Hemi Heights is a 4-lane wood-routed track offering great racing for 1/24 scale cars.

A great group of fourteen racers showed up to put the NASTE '55 Chevys through their paces. The NASTE Chevys are not extremely fast (being powered by RadioShack motors), but they are challenging and fun to drive! It's fender slapping at it's very best in the true NASTE tradition.

The racing proved to be very close and as the evening progressed, Jake Courtney came out on top to claim the win just squeaking by Dad Jeff. Thanks to the Courtney's for a great night of racing!
